The 72.80-metre Quantum of Solace (Ex: Vicky, Honor) is now listed as a yacht for sale. Built by Turquoise Yachts in 2012, this motor yacht for sale has an impressive volume of 1,730 GT. The yacht has undergone several refits, the most recent of which happened earlier this year at the Savannah Yacht Center.

The naval architecture of yacht Quantum of Solace, for sale, comes from the drawing boards of Hydro Tec, a company based in Ovada, Italy, and the creative minds of H2 Yacht Design took on the vessel's exterior and interior design.

This Turquoise yacht for sale's large volume allows for ample accommodation: 14 guests can sleep in seven luxurious staterooms. The full-beam master suite on the upper deck features balconies on either side of the room and is equipped with a luscious bathroom and two dressing rooms. The six remaining staterooms, located on the main deck, are no less luxurious and are conveniently close to the main saloon, which has a double-height atrium. Up to 18 crew can also sleep on board.

Other standout features on board yacht Quantum of Solace, for sale, include an owner's office, a full-beam spa - including a gym, hammam, sauna, Jacuzzi and massage room - on the lower deck, and an expansive sun deck with a 5-metre-long swimming pool with contra flow system, a bar, shaded dining area and disco complete with lights, a smoke machine and DJ equipment. The motor yacht for sale also boasts zero-speed stabilisers, a hydraulic swim platform and a large selection of toys.

With her twin Caterpillar 3516B engines, this motor yacht for sale can reach speeds of up to 17 knots and cruise at 15 knots. She has a range of 4,750 nautical miles at her most fuel-efficient speed.
